

ERAS WHEN "POWER" WAS MEASURED IN CANDLES ARE WORTH PRESERVING.

Dominion is committed to preserving historic landmarks and resources that help us envision tomorrow by remembering yesterday.

To keep ahead of the energy needs of our customers, we're constantly preparing for the future. But to make sure we're moving forward responsibly, we never take our eye off the past. By helping restore and conserve historic landmarks and landscapes enjoyed by everyone, we're protecting our sense of community and taking pride in where we live and work. To learn more about how we're putting our energy to work preserving important historic resources, visit www.dom.com, keyword: foundation.
